One candidate for County Auditor.

The Delegates thus elected will come prepared to recommend and appoint the Vigilance Committees for their respective districts.

E. M. BLANCHARD,
Chairman Republican Co. Committee.

THE REPUBLICAN FOR THE CAMPAIGN. CLUBS! CLUBS!

We are now about commencing another great battle for the salvation of the Union, and perpetuity of free Government, of Republican Institutions. We have the same enemy to contend against, the same party and faction that trampled the old Flag—the Star Spangled Banner, under their feet in 1861, and that fired upon Fort Sumpter. We punished them then for their treason, we must not permit them now, since they have assumed another shape, to secure through the ballot box, what they failed to secure through four years of bloody war—the dissolution of the Union, and the formation of a Southern Confederacy.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty." We must be active.

We must be watchful and ever on the alert. We must circulate papers and documents in order that every voter may fully understand the issues and vote intelligently in the approaching fall elections.

To this end we offer the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN from the 1st of August to the 1st day of December, 1872—FOUR MONTHS—for 60 cents to single subscribers, or to clubs of FIVE, TEN, TWENTY or more at 50 cents per copy.

Now, let our active energetic friends bestir themselves and send in LARGE CLUBS from every township and Borough in the county. IN EVERY CASE THE MONEY MUST ACCOMPANY THE ORDER. Get up the clubs. Send in the names and money.

EX-GOVERNOR CURTIN'S MOVEMENTS.

We have authority for stating that ex-Governor Curtin is expected in New York this week; but there is no foundation for the statement that he comes home to oppose the election of Gen. Grant. On the contrary he has written that those who spoke for him at Cincinnati had no authority whatever.

ORGANIZATION WILL BRING VICTORY:

Republicans of Centre County—of Pennsylvania—now is the time to organize, to marshal our forces, to count every man, to know every man. The only certain road to victory is thorough organization and work. It has been well said that the campaign before us bids fair to be one of unusual activity and earnestness.

Our opponents are desperate, and will infuse into the canvass all the venom of treachery and the concentrated bitterness of party malice. The line of battle and the method of warfare are already indicated.

The line will be the same as that marked out by Calhoun in Jackson's time, and the weapons used will be personal abuse, systematic, and gross exaggeration of the most trifling faults of the Administration.

It will be political, guerrillaism on a scale never before known, the combination of every element of moral depravity, devoid of principle, seeking but one object—the defeat of PRESIDENT GRANT.

The attack on our lines will be as desperate as GEN. LEE'S last effort to break the line which enveloped his army at Appomattox, and the result will be the same. After November next Horace Greeley can repeat his old opinion of our leaders ability—"General Grant has never been defeated, and never will be."

We feel assured of certain victory; but we must make the defeat of the enemy not only a defeat, but a disastrous route. We can hold our present position, and spare a few traitors to principle and liberal sore-heads—sore-heads because they proved themselves too dishonest to obtain office from the Republican party. This, we say, we can do, but this is not sufficient, this will not satisfy us, we must drive the enemy from the positions they now hold.

We can do it, and if every Republican will work from now until November, as if the salvation of the Republic depended on his individual exertion, we can elect President Grant with as large a majority as indorsed ABRAHAM LINCOLN for a second term.

To do this, we must have thorough organization.

Every district must be canvassed.

Local committees must be active in watching and counteracting every movement of the enemy.

Our work must be thorough and effectual, so that when the day of election comes, we shall present an unbroken front, and poll every vote possible for the support of our entire State and National ticket.

We must clean out deserters and traitors, from our ranks, and take by the hand all honest conscientious Democrats who cannot support Horace Greeley, and who may wish to attach themselves to the great Republican party since their own leaders have so fully endorsed all that we have done as a party within the past twelve years. We want those men. We invite them to come—to come into our organization upon an equal footing with the oldest veteran in our ranks.

We bid you welcome. Come without delay. Why halt between two opinions? Why hesitate between right and wrong? Your own party by endorsing and adopting the Cincinnati platform, most fully approved of all the measures adopted by the Republican party, and at the same time declared that their own principles, their own actions, their own platforms were all wrong, and that their organization has been a fraud, a cheat, a delusion.

Why stand you all the day idle? WORK! WORK!! ORGANIZE!! ORGANIZE. We want energetic, united, indefatigable work. We want something more than a drawn battle which shall leave us in posession of the field.

We want to win a victory which shall leave our opponents so shattered and demoralized that it will take at least a half century for them to recover sufficiently to make another stand against the great party of PROGRESS and LIBERTY, PROTECTION and the RIGHTS of MAN.

Republicans of Centre County—of Pennsylvania, we urge upon you once more the necessity of immediate action, of thorough organization. Will you heed our voice? Awake, then and gird on your whole armor, and strike once more against the mongrel party, that murdered so many of your fathers, sons and brothers, and caused millions of dollars of debt in its base and wicked attempts to destroy the Union. Let us teach them, that notwithstanding they have donned the Lion's skin—the Union mask—we yet recognize the animal by its ass-ociations—by its rebel ears, its works of treason, its cries of "the war is a failure" and "the South can never be conquered." It is, friends, rest assured, the same old enemy wickedly and treacherously wearing the Union uniform, in order, the more readily to deceive the weak and vascilating, and to carry out their own HELLISH schemes of disunion—two distinct Governments, instead of the one, United, harmonious, strong and glorious Government handed down to us by our "Fathers" and saved and perpetuated by Gen. Grant, Gen. Hartranft and their fellow soldiers—the noble brave hearted Boys in Blue.

THE THIEVES FOR BUCKALEW.—The Evans Ring to a man are against Hartranft and for Buckalew. Yerkes is for Buckalew because he knows Hartranft will never pardon him out of the penitentiary. Evans, who stands in dread of the penitentiary, is for Buckalew for a similar reason. Forney is opposed to Hartranft and for Buckalew because Hartranft exposed his complicity with Evans and broke up the swindling arrangement whereby his "two papers, both daily," were to receive $20,000 of the outcome in consideration of Forney's influence in securing Evans's appointment as State Agent.

MEEK, MEEKLY REFUSES to SWALLOW GREELEY AND BROWN.

As our readers all know, Hon. P. G. Meek declared through his Watchman, before the meeting of the Baltimore Convention, that if the convention nominated Greeley and Brown, he would not support them; but turn his paper into a religious organ. Well, the convention did assemble, and did nominate Greeley and Brown and more still, adopted the Cincinnati Liberal Republican platform. In short the Liberals controlled the Baltimore Convention and compelled the Democratic Delegates, Wm. A. Wallace et. al. to swallow the nauseous dose.

But it is too much for Meek. His stomach is a little tender. He hates Greeley, the d——d old abolishonist, as he terms him, and he despises the Cincinnati Platform, because it alleges that all men are equal before the law, that a "nigger" is as good as a white man.—Meek says this kills the "White man's party" certain. But we will let him tell his own story in his own language:

"We believe it is all a great mistake, and that this will be made apparent in the future. No good can result to the Democratic party from it, which to-day, in our estimation, is more in danger of defeat with Greeley than it would have been had the convention made a straight-out nomination."

"The bad work has been accomplished, however, and those who have done it must bear the responsibility. On the contrary we protested against it with all the force we had, and now we shall leave the people to use their own judgment in the matter. They can vote the Baltimore ticket, or they can let it alone—just as they please."

How magnanimous this chivalric gentleman has become. He opposed the action of the Baltimore convention, he says, "with all the force we had," and found that his "force" was a very small affair—too small to prevent the bargain and sale and the absorption of his party by the Liberal Sore-head disappointed Republicans. Once in your history, Meek, you did not amount to much.—"All the force" you had was of no avail to prevent the "cowardly surrender"—the "devilish humiliation" of swallowing two "old abolitionists" and the Cincinnati "nigger equality platform."

But it must be some consolation to the Democrats of Centre county to know that they are free men—that they can, by your permission, "do just as they please"—"vote the Baltimore ticket, or let it alone."

Democrats of Centre, is this not magnanimous in Peter G. Meek? Are you not thankful that you are once more permitted to vote just as you please?—This much it appears the Baltimore convention has already done for you. It has broken your organization, it is true, but it has done more, it has broken the chains which have bound you hand, foot and conscience, and compelled your empiric and mandatory leaders to say that you can now (for once) vote as you please. We thought that the Republican party had accomplished a glorious act when it emancipated four millions of slaves; but we see now its work was not done. Horace Greeley claims to be "a better Republican now than ever," and Meek admits that through Horace and the action of the Baltimore Convention, the shackles have been torn from three millions of enslaved white Democrats, who are now (may we not say thank God) free to vote just as they please. And, this, all the work of the great Republican party!

MR. J. M. MCCLURE, in his testimony before the Investigating Committee, brought out the fact that the original agreement was that Forney should participate in the Evans job to the extent of $20,000 or more. That he did not, there is no proof. Forney confesses to only $2,000. Perhaps a complete division of the spoils had not been made when Hartranft "went for" Evans, and the investigation exposed the whole crew and their swindling game If under such circumstances Forney supported Hartranft he would be something more than human in his forgiveness. He prefers Buckalew of course; and so does Yerkes, who associates the idea of Hartranft's defeat with a pardon for himself from the penitentiary. A virtuous crew—Forney, Evans, Yerkes. One in the penitentiary, another a fugitive to escape such a fate, the other a confessed participant in this "swag." And they are the head and front of the opposition to Hartranft.—Pittsburg Commercial.

VIRTUE seems to be nothing more than a motion consonant to the system of things; were a planet to fly from its orbit, it would represent a vicious man,

THE DEMOCRACY DEMORALIZED —ALL HANDS BELOW.

Since the shameful surrender of the Democratic leaders in the Baltimore Convention the Democratic party has become most fearfully demoralized. The rank and file, the intelligent masses of the party do not understand the situation, nor the reason assigned for the transfer of their party to a squad of Liberal Republican guerillas. They look at in the same light we do. They say it was not only a surrender of their time honored principles; but an open Confession that those principles were wrong; that the Democratic party had been in the wrong, and that the Republican party had been in the right, for the last twelve years. We heard one old Democrat remarking a few evenings since that his leaders by their actions at Baltimore acknowledged that they had deceived and misled him for the last sixteen years, and now he would trust them no farther; but would, himself and three sons, vote for Grant and Wilson and the whole Republican ticket.

The Baltimore Convention was a set up job. It was a packed Institution and the Surrender of principle and the nomination of Greeley and Brown a foregone conclusion. A renegade sore head Liberal Republican—Mr. Doolittle was chosen as President of the Convention, the better to enforce the gag-law. The Straight-outs were shone no chance. They were not allowed to speak. If they attempted it their voices were drowned by cries of "Previous question." The Gag-law was enforced, and the Democratic party forced to submit, to its own demoralization and humiliation.

Senator Bayard attempted to speak but the Gag-law was enforced upon him and for a while he was silenced. He with his party was doomed. The action of the Convention reminds us of a very good story that we have seen or read some where, and which illustrates the action of the Baltimore Convention and the present condition of the Democratic party. It is as follows: A parrot who had always lived on board of a ship; but had escaped at one of the Southern ports and took refuge in a church. Soon afterwards the congregation assembled and the minister began preaching, saying that there was no virtue in them; that every one of them would be lost, unless they speedily repented. Just as he uttered the sentence up spoke the parrot from his hiding place:

"All hands below!"

To say that "all hands" were startled would be but a mild way of putting it. The peculiar voice from its unknown source, had much more effect upon them than the parson's voice ever had. He waited a moment, and then, a shade or two paler, he repeated the warning.

"All hands below!" again rang out from somewhere.

The preacher started from his pulpit, and looked anxious around, and inquiring if any body had spoken.

"All hands below!" was the only reply, at which the panic-stricken congregation got up, and a moment after they all bolted the doors, the preacher trying his best to be first, and during the time the mischievous bird kept up his yelling:

"All hands below!"

There was one old woman who was lame, and could not get out so fast as the rest, and in a very short time she was left entirely alone. Just as she was about to hobble out the parrot flew down and alighting on her shoulder, yelled in her ear.

"All hands below!"

"No, no, Mister Devil," shrieked the old woman, "you can't mean me. I don't belong here. I go to the other church across the way."

So Senator Bayard said to Mr. Doolittle—the liberal d—l of the Baltimore Convention, I will speak sir; I do not belong to your church. I belong to the little church across the way—Deleware—where we have the whipping post it is true, but we have now free speach. No! No, Mr. Devil do not enforce your gag-law upon me for I will speak. Here the voice was heard.

"All hands below" but Senator Bayard refused to be silenced and commced speaking. He said:

The history of our mother country illustrates the fact that political coalitions never succeed. The history of all coalitions in our own country for political ends is a record of utter failures. The coalition of Aaron Burr with the Federalists, in 1801, covered them both with obloquy. The conspiracy of De Witt Clinton, in 1812, to defeat Mr. Madison, was an utter failure. So was the coalition of Henry Clay and John Quincy Adams. And they were all denounced from one end of the country to the other. We cannot tell who is giving, and we cannot tell who are to get the breefits. There must be somebody to get them, as well as somebody to give. Do you think there is nothing offered in return for the highest prize in their gift?

In relation to the coalition which culminates this day in the opera house in this city what do the masses think about it? Will they consent? No, gentlemen! And we are here this day to call upon those intelligent masses to see whether they will ratify and confirm a so manifest bargain."

This was too much for the mongrels and the Parrot voice of Mr. Doolittle was again heard.

"All hands below" and all appeals on the part of Mr. Bayard to the Mr. D—l of the Convention proved abortive. The coalition was made. And now the sound, still rings in the ears of the Democrats.

"All hands below.' Down! down, their party must go. They are now Liberal Republicans and all their appeals and asseverations that they are Democrats; that they belong to that church, will be unheeded by the Liberal d—l. His order is "All hands below."

CAPITAL AND LABOR.

"Strikes!" "Strikes!" resound throughout the land. What means this unwelcome sound? Capital and labor, like the upper and nether mill-stone, are grinding against each other. What shall be the result of this untoward event?

Our fathers, animated with patriotism and guided by wisdom, erected a temple of Liberty, intended to be firm in its foundations and beautiful in its proportions. Shall this temple of Freedom be razed to the ground, and in its stead be reared a fortress of despotism and a magazine of hate?

"Strikes!" What are they? The outcropping of cupidity and selfishness. The employer aims to make the most of the labor of the employee, who in turn overvalues his time and skill. The first thinks of his own interests, and the second is not slow to do likewise.

The few have in all ages controlled the many, but it would seem now-a-days that a great change is foreshadowed. Revolutions take no step backward. And now, as the pendulum oscillates from extreme to extreme, the many seem disposed to dictate terms to the few.

"Strikes!" What are they? The convulsions of outraged humanity. Shall the body politic be wisely treated, or shall it be dosed with empyrics? Shall judgment and skill restore to health, or shall the quack experiment even unto death?

What do we want in this emergency? A clear perception of the situation, that shall enable us to grapple with the difficulties and dangers that beset us in this day of strikes.

There are social, and moral, and political, and financial questions at issue. These are of the gravest importance to the individual and the community. As they are wisely or unwisely solved we stand or fall.

It were a crime against the citizen and the State to decry any particular class or caste. The rich cannot do without the labor of the poor, who, in turn, cannot do without the money of the rich.

The demagogues cry "Division of the property of the rich"—is treason against justice and honor, while the wealthy oppressor of the poor is a traitor to humanity.

O, for hearts in every class of men anxious to deal justly with all, and for minds that shall grasp and comprehend the intricate questions that pertain to the relations of capital and labor.

The best way to remedy the evils, or wrongs inflicted upon the laboring classes by the wealthy, or more fortunate class, is for every laboring man, farmer and mechanic to attend the delegate, or primary meetings of his party, and vote for delegates, who are known to be sincere in their desire to elevate and protect labor, and who will vote for no man to fill any high office of a Legislative character either in the State, or Nation, who will not pledge himself to stand by the rights and interests of the laboring class.

The interest of capital and labor, is a mutual interest; but how long will it remain so, if labor continues in the future, as in the past, to support men to the State and National Legislatures, simply because they claim to be worth two, three, or five hundred thousand dollars, and ask no questions as to how this vast wealth was accumulated? It is a notorious fact that such fortunes in nine cases out of ten, are amassed by a heartless and systematic grinding of the poor, or working class.

The question in regard to any candidate is not; Is he rich; but is he honest and capable? Will he oppose in the main, class Legislation, and at the same time faithfully guard the rights and interests of the working, toiling millions who after all, is the true source of all our wealth?

Working men of Pennsylvania, your duty is a plain one. Will you sustain such an aristocrat as Buckalew, or such an oppressor of the poor, and builder up of great corporations as Mr. Gowan—President of the Reading Railroad Company?

CONGRESSMAN.

THE VOICE OF THE PRESS.

[From the Tyrone Herald.]

Col. W. W. Brown, editor of the Bellefonte Republican is being urged by his friends as a candidate for Congressional honors. Few men have labored more determinedly or successfully for the building up and perpetuity of the Republican party than Col. Brown.—Through his influential journal, and upon the stump—wherever necessary his tongue and pen have always been outspoken for the Right. If faithful servants are ever rewarded, Col. Brown will now assuredly receive that recognition of his long and earnest labors in a Congressional nomination.

[From the Hollidaysburg Register.]

W. W. Brown, Esq., editor of the Bellefonte Republican, has been named in connection with the nomination for Congress, in that district. Mr. Brown is an able and faithful worker in the cause of Republicanism, and would make a good representative. We trust he may secure the position.

[From the Huntingdon Journal.]

Our worthy contemporary, of the Bellefonte Republican, W. W. Brown, Esq., is highly recommended for Congress in the Centre district. He is an able and fearless advocate of Republican principles and deserves well at the hands of the party for his eminent services. We wish him success.

[From the Clinton Republican.]

Our cotempore, W. W. Brown, of the Bellefonte Republican, has been named as a candidate for Congress. In this movement we will have no part nor lot, as Brown is too good an editor to be spared from his post at this juncture of affairs.

Upon the same principle we suppose that the Clinton Republican's pet candidate for Congress should be compelled to remain in his present position, in order the better to bless the world, and to assist some man who is worth nothing at home, in getting to Congress, where he would be worth-less. We will see friend Bowman that the interests of the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN are maintained.

[From the Harrisburg Telegraph, July 3rd.]
EIGHTEENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Col. W. W. Brown, editor of the Bellefonte Republican, has been brought prominently forward by a brother editor, Mr. J. G. Kurtz, for nomination for Congress by the Republicans of the 18th district. Col. Brown has warm supporters, and is eminently qualified for the position in which his friends desire to place him; besides, Mr. Kurtz more than intimates that certain parties in whose favor Col. Brown withdrew when he was a candidate before the last Republican Convention, are bound by pledges then given to sustain him now. How this may be we do not know, but we may be permitted to say, without the slightest intention of interference in the selection of a Congressional candidate in the district, that Col. Brown is a good man and a sound Republican.

[From the Pittsburg Morning Mail, July 4th.]

The name of Col. W. W. Brown, editor of the Bellefonte Republican, is mentioned in connection with the Congressional nomination in the Eighteenth District. Col. Brown would be a very available candidate, as he has every qualification for an active and influential member of Congress. Politically he is well informed of the necessities of his district and of the State, and as a candidate he would be a powerful advocate of Republican principles, on the stump, as he would be in the forum. We would with pleasure congratulate the people of the Eighteenth district if they should be so fortunate as to secure Col. Brown for their representative in Congress.

[From the Lewisburg Chronicle, July 5th.]

J. G. Kurtz, Esq., in a forcible article in the Bellefonte Republican, urges the nomination of Col. W. W. Brown, as a candidate for Congress in the 18th district. Col. Brown has been a faithful worker in the Republican party for many years, and he would no doubt make a strong run as a candidate and a superior representative if elected.

[From the State Journal, July 6th.]

W. W. Brown, of the Bellefonte Republican, is spoken of as a probable candidate for Congress from the Eighteenth district. He is a deserving man and a fearless as well as an able advocate of Republican principles, which he has defended and sustained with much ability for many years. If nominated, Mr. Brown would make a dangerous rival for any man whom the Democracy could pit against him; and on account of his power on the stump, we would like to see our old friend made the standard bearer in his district.

BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN

BELLEFONTE, PA.

A DANGEROUS MAN.

BY CORPORAL BUMP.

Mr. Sumner says that Grant is a bold, and, dangerous man.—Newspaper.

"A bold, bad man is Gen. Grant,"
Said Floyd one gloomy night,
As out from Donaldson he crept,
And took his hasty flight.
From Pillow's trembling lips there came
An echo sounding much the same.
And Buckner thought his chief was right,
Nor longer durst maintain the fight;
And then came down the rebel "bars,"
And from the fort hung stripes and stars.
"That Grant's a dangerous man!" said they;
And doubtless think the same to-day.

"A bold, bad man is Gen. Grant,"
Said Beauregard one morn;
As from the haughty traitor's brow
The victor's wreath was torn;
And from the field his legions went,
By orders Gen. Grant had sent.
The Shiloh's field was ours again,
Despite the host of rebel men,
Who came an army boasting loud,
But went a panic-stricken crowd;
For Beauregard and all his men
Perhaps thought Grant was dangerous then.

"A bold, bad man is Gen. Grant,"
Said Pemberton one day;
"Entreaties are of no avail.
He will not go away,
A stubborn, mulish, dangerous man!
He wants our rebel hides to tan."
And still Grant's cannon raked the town,
Until the rebel flags came down;
And then our banners, rent and torn,
Were through the streets of Vicksburg borne.
The "bold, bad man," that glorious "Fourth,"
Sent gladsome tidings to the North.

"A bold, bad man is Gen Grant!"
And poor Bragg's eyes were dim
With tears: said he, "I know
'Tis useless fighting him."
And soon the cheers from Grant's brave men
On Lookout's crest, told where and when
The rebel General had to run,
And what that "cold, bad man" had done.
"That Grant's a dangerous man!" he said,
As from the field his aamy fled.

"A bold, bad man is Gen. Grant"
Said Lee, "that's plain to see;
He must be very bold, indeed,
To think of whipping me."
Then Petersburg and Richmond fell;
Then Appomatox—may be—well,
At last our heroes' work was done;
The final victory was won.
Perhaps the people may forget
These things, but then, they haven't yet.
They needed then, such "dangerous" men,
And think perhaps they may again.

"A bold, bad, dangerous man is Grant;
Jeff Davis thought the same.
When running in the crinoline,
He to the "last ditch" came.
A Kuklux's gentle voice was heard.
And—"Grant is dangerous" averred,
It needs must be that this is so,
For all these rebels ought to know.
Then Hall and Tweed—good honest men—
Say "Grant is bold and bad," and when
Such men declars it, then, forsooth,
Folks know that Sumner tells the truth.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The Altoona District S. S. Convention commenced its fourth annual Session in the M. E. Church, Philipsburg, June 18, 1872.

First Session.—At 11 o'clock, A. M., the Convention convened to effect an organization, Rev. J. S. McMurray, P. E., acting as temporary President—Rev. W. H. Dill, of Clearfield, conducted the opening religious services. On motion, Rev. J. S. McMurray, P. E. of District, was elected President; Hon. John Patton, of Curwensville, Vice President; Rev. J. W. Cleaver, of Milesburg, Secretary, and Rev. J. F. Bell, of Osceola, assistant Secretary. By request of the President the Secretary called the names of the various charges, and 12 ministers and 50 delegates reported present at first session. On motion, adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock, A. M. Benediction by Rev. Wm. Gwynn.

Second Session.—Tuesday afternoon, June 18. Convention assembled at 2 P. M. Prest. in chair. Devotional exercises conducted by Rev. J. W. Haughawout. Minutes of morning Session were read and approved. Reports both verbal and written, were then given by delegates from all the charges represented in the Convention and all made interesting statements in regard to the Sunday School work in the various schools. The following resolution was presented and on motion adopted:—Resolved, That Ministers of the Gospel of different denominations and all S. S. workers that may be present be and are hereby invited to seats in the Convention and to participate in its proceedings. Rev. J. M. Perry, of Baptist church, was introduced. Question for discussion stated by the chair, viz: "Advantages of Uniform Lessons in Sunday Schools." Opened by brother T. Barnhart, followed by brothers Bell, Wilson, Dill, Buckley, Gwynn, L. V. Ganoe, Cleaver, Riddle, Guyer, Steward, and others. The discussion was spirited and exciting, and resulted in the adoption of the following resolution:—Resolved, That we consider a Uniform Lesson Series essential to the success of our Sunday Schools and heartily recommened "The Bereau Series" as well adapted to our needs. Notices were given; the Doxology was sung. The Benediction was pronounced by Rev. John Guss.

Third Session—Tuesday Evening, June 18. The Convention met at 8 P. M. A beautiful and delightful voluntary was sung by the choir. Rev. J. W. Buckley conducted the devotional exercises. The President announced that Rev. F. B. Riddle, of First Charge, Altoona, would now preach the annual sermon. Brother Riddle took his text from Isaiah XI—9, and in a manner characteristic of himself proceeded to declare the truth. The sermon was plain, pointed, strong and eloquent, and will not soon be forgotten by those that heard. Collection lifted to defray expenses—$11,36. Prayer by Rev. W. V. Ganoe. Sang Doxology, Benediction by Rev. Thos. Barnhart.

Fourth Session—Wednesday, June 19. Session opened by reading 1st Psalm, singingt 524 hymn, had prayer by Rev J. D. Steward. Pesident called list of appointments in District and 30 additional delegates reported present. Curwinsville was selected as the place for holding the next Convention—time, 2nd Tuesday, June, 1873. Discussion—"What have our Sunday Schools accomplished?" Opened by brother T. Barnhart, followed by brothers Patton, Wilson, Guyer, Chandler, Stewart and Switzer; when, on motion, Convention proceeded to discuss second question on programme, "Order in Sunday Schools." Said discussion was participated in by quite a number. "Who should teach in Sunday Schools?" was well discussed by the President of the Convention and others, including Rev. J. M. Perry, of Baptist church. Singing—"Sweet By and By." Adjourned. Benediction—Rev. A. D. Yocum.

Fifth Session—Wednesday Afternoon, June 19. This session was devoted to Children's Meeting. Prayer by Rev. J. W. Cleaver. The exercises were interspersed with singing by Philipsburg Sunday Schools. The singing of children was a very interesting part of meeting. Appropriate and entertaining addresses were delivered be Revs. J. S. McMurray, Geo. Guyer, S. F. Bell and Wm. Gwynn. President being called unexpectedly home by telegram, on motion, Rev. Thos. Barnhart was appointed to act as Chairman until his return. On motion, adjourned. Benediction by Rev. John Guss.

Sixth Session—Wednesday eve., June 19. Convention met at time appointed, Rev. R. E. Wilson conducting religious services. Minutes of former sessions of the day read and approved. Dicussion—"How to study a lesson." The subject was fitly discussed by bro's Buckley, Wilson, Steward, Guss, Cleaver, Chandler and Switzer. Time having expired, second subject was taken up and spoken upon by several—"What is Efficient Teaching?" Singing—"When I Can Read My Title Clear"—chorus "We'll Stand the Storm," &c., &c. Third Question—"Is the Prize System Beneficial to Sunday Schools?" Opened by Rev. Switzer taking grounds and advancing arguments in favor of said system. Rev. Wilson followed denouncing the whole affair as a system of bribery, &c., and that in no instance should it be encouraged in our Sunday Schools. Brothers Risbel, Bell, Gwynn, Linch followed in the discussion and quite an interest was manifested. This was perhaps the most exciting topic that had been before the convention. Hour for adjournment having arrived Doxology was sung. Benediction pronounced by Rev. M. L. Ganoe.

Seventh Session—Thursday Morning, June 20. Rev. Wm. Gwynn conducted devotional exercises. On motion, Presiding Elder of District, Pastor in charge of Curwinsville station, and Hon. John Patton were appointed Commitee on Circular and Programme for next Convention. On motion the following was adopted: Resolved, that the secretaries be requested to prepare a synopsis of proceedings of Convention for publication. The chair announced that the question "Infant class teaching," was open for discussion and urged infant class teachers to especielly participate. This they did, several sisters presenting their views and giving their experience. The remarks were all pertinent to the subject as well as quite interesting and practical. On motion discussion closed. Second question:—"How can we best manage our library?" Opened by brother Chandler. Rev. J. S. McMurray, President, entered Convention room and took the chair. Rev. Gwynn moved that we now proceed to discuss question passed over in Programme at former session in reference to Sunday School Prayer Meeting. Rev. Wilson hoped the motion would not prevail and offered as a substitute that we take up question laid on the fable at former meeting. Bro. Rishel rose to offer an amendment, giving one half hour to each question. Rev. Barnhart rose to a point of order in reference to amending a motion that had been laid on the table. Chair decided the point of order well taken, and not knowing what was done at evening session called reading of minutes at that point and ruled the amendment out of order. Vote taken on substitute—carried. Bro. Wilson then offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the system of rewards in our Sunday Schools, apart from tickets in Infant class, is mischievous and pernicious in its influences upon the school. Bro. Cleaver seconded resolution on condition that the world "Prizes" be substituted for "reward"—substitute accepted—and after spirited remarks bearing on resolution by Bro's Wilson, Gwynn, Cleaver, Switzer, Capt. Harpham and others was unanimously adopted. Adjourned with Benediction by Rev. J. Chandler.

Eighth and closing Session—Thursday afternoon, June 20. The Convention assembled at 2 P. M., according to adjournment, when the President, Rev. J. S. McMurray, announced the hymn—"Delightful work young souls to win," and after singing offered an appropriate prayer. Minutes read and approved. Rev. J. Foster Bell offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That we highly appreciate the able and truthful sermon of our brother F. B. Riddle, delivered by him on first evening of Convention, and that he be requested to furnish a copy for publication.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere thanks to the different families of Philipsburg for the kind and hospitable manner in which they have opened their houses to delegates and friends who have been present at Convention.

Resolved, That we highly appreciate and are heartily thankful to the members of the Choir in this church for services rendered during Convention. Also a vote of thanks was tendered to the Trustees of the church, committee on Programme, and President and Secretaries of Convention. One hour was profitably spent in the relating of experiences in Sunday Schools, when, on motion, convention adjourned. Thus closed the most successful Convention yet held in the District. It was truthfully called "a spiritual convention." A happy feeling prevailed throughout, and notwithstanding the weather was very warm, it was well attended and was full of life and interest. Many said with Peter on the mount "Master it is good for us to be here," and all returned to their homes with glad hearts to work for Jesus.

DEMOCRATIC LOVE FOR THE LABORING MAN.

The Democracy are always very anxous to have it understood that they are the peculiar and only friends of the laboring man; that they guard his welfare and represent his interests. At the Williamsport convention which put up the Labor Reform ticket there were four Democrats to one Republican. Indeed, that entire affair was engineered, inspired and applauded by the Democracy as a trick which they calculated at the time, and continue to hope, will interfere with Republican success. But what did the Democracy do at Reading? Mr. Schell, a sound and steadfast Democrat, and who is the candidate for Governor on the Labor Reform ticket, was present to treat with his Democratic friends, but they snubbed him, and they insulted the laboring men of the State by nominating for delegate at large to the Constitutional convention Frank Gowen, president of the Reading railroad, a man who of all others has been guiltier of meaner and more intolerant acts to the laboring men of the Schuylkill coal region, and wherever his influence can reach labor, than any man in the country. He has violated every compact he ever made with the miner, and used the immense force of the overshadowing corporation over which he presides to grind the face of labor, load it down with exactions, and laugh it to scorn when he deems it justifiable to break faith with it. Yet, in the face of Democratic profession of regard for the laboring man, Mr. Gowan is put forward as a candidate for a most important political position, for power which he is expected to use to place the organic law as completely in the control of corporations as are the statutes of the Commonwealth. We ask the laboring man to ponder these facts—to remember that in all legislative contests where the Democratic party has had power it has betrayed his interests, and not to forget that the same party now seeks control of the constitutional convention to run it in the interests of corporations, and thereby once more sacrifice labor. It is the boldest of the bad games attempted by the Democracy.—State Journal.

THE ANIMUS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY TOWARDS THE LABORING MAN.

There is no doubt whatever, says the State Journal, that at this period of its demoralization as in the days of its pride and glory, the animus of the Democratic party is exhibited in the manner in which it schemes to compromise and humiliate the interests and the personal character of laboring men. The nomination and withdrawal of a Labor Reform ticket for president and vice president was a work of the Democratic party, accomplished for no other purpose than that of using labor to advance the success of its great enemy. But the nomination of Mr. F. B. Gowan, president of the Reading railroad, as a candidate at largë to the constitutional convention caps the climax of Democratic intrigue against labor. The Mauch Chunk Coal Gazette appreciates these facts when it declares:

Buckalew is bad, Hartley is worse, but for the workingmen of this section Gowen is the worst. They declare to a man that they will not vote the ticket with his name upon it. The thirty or forty thousand anthracite miners and laborers are a unit, not only against Gowen, but against the Democratic party for putting such an uncompromising foe to labor upon the ticket. Gowen is regarded by the men in every region (but especially in Schuylkill) as the man who is, more than all others, responsible for all the ills of the miner. He has been the persistent opponent of the men at every step. Instead of compromising he has wanted to crush; and the injured workingman will sweetly revenge himself, by opposing not only Mr. Gowen, but all his associates. And after three years of bitter war we do not see how they could do otherwise. The men fought against fearful odds. Mr. Gowen battled for his great corporation and its twelve per cent. dividends. The miner for scanty bread for his wife and little ones. The president of the Reading railroad could have afforded to be magnanimous, but he has no feeling, no sympathy for the poor men. Let them crush him and his colleagues with their votes, as he has tried to crush them with his gold.

A CAREFUL estimate of the relative strength of the Democratic and Republican parties in Illinois, based on the vote of 1868 and 1870, gives the Republicans nineteen majority in the Senate and twenty-three majority in the House, or forty-two on joint ballot.

For the REPUBLICAN.

BEAUTIFUL CLOUDS.

BY BECKIE F. CANAN.

Beautiful Clouds! rose blended with white,
Piled in great heaps in the blue western sky,
Transparent, golden tinged traillings of light,
Floating at will 'mong the zephyrs on high.
Rising and wreathing like columns of smoke,
Growing and settling like great drifts of snow,
Pearly lined, silver edged, crimson and gold.
Fairy barks, gliding now swiftly, now slow.

O, that I had the swift wings of a bird!
Up to thy cool, breezy harbor I'd flee;
Rest when thou'rt quiet and float, at thy will,
Over the trackless ethereal sea.
Beautiful Clouds! hast thou sorrow and pain;
Up in thy chambers of silver tipped spray?
Can thy sweet whis'p'rings bring hope back again,
Canst thou turn glowing night into pure day!

Someday thy bright misty columns will break;
Pierced by the the rings of a triumphant throng;
Someday thy slumbering echo will wake.
Wake with the gushing of rapturous song!
Pass through the glitter of thy palace hall,
Leading a sanctified angelic band,
Come with the far wakening trumpet's first call.

We will go home through the beautiful cloud,
Home to the jasper walled city of light,
Up with the sweet burst of song, rich and loud,
Up with the angels wing's pure waving white,
Then how the great pearly gates will swing back,
Opening the city's paved streets to our eyes;
Then how the voice of thanksgiving and praise,
Up from the blood redeemed throng will arise.

Beautiful Clouds! though I look but on thee,
Melting like snow drifts beneath the sun's rays,
Yet I may think of the host I shall see,
Open thy closed door on that blissful day.
Thou'rt so like the city my sad longing paints,
So like my dream of the white glittering throne,
So like the pure spotless rose of the saints,
So like the light round my beautiful home.

PORT MATILDA, June 18th, 1872.

Our Candidates At Home.

Neither in his own country, the Senatorial nor Congressional district in which he votes, is Gen. Hartranft opposed covertly or openly by a Republican journal nor by any man or men of the least prominence in politics or weight in society. There never was a man nominated for a high office, who stood so well at home, who has so few local antagonisms and jealousies to meet as has Gen. Hartranft. His associates in the Republican party all honor and respect him. He arouses no jealousy—has no private hates to contend against—is unassailed by malice, and is entirely free from the threatening of resentful jealousy. There is no public man of whom it can be as truthfully said that he is just and fair with all with whom he deals, as John F. Hartranft. He has never intrigued to circumvent the honest asperations of any man in the Republican party—never sought to pull any man down that he might rise—never struck a rival in the back; but with a loftiness of dealing becoming a chivalric character and a truly brave man, he has dealt frankly and fairly with all men, respecting the rights of each and recognizing just merit whenever it came before him for its dues. Hence the popularity of Hartranft at home. His neighbors honor him—and at his home men of all parties reject with indignation all attempts to couple his name with dishonesty or throw around him the odor of suspicion of any description. Such is Hartranft at home.

Ulysses Mercur is of a class of men whose actions never fail to attract attention. There is nothing negative in his character. He is positive in nature. What he is, HE IS, and those who know him, understand him thoroughly, because he strives to be understood. When such a man is popular at home, it is the proof of his qualification for high station, and on this evidence Mr. Mercur was made the Republican candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court. His neighbors and constituents nominated him. It was their determined advocacy and warm endorsement which won the State Convention, and the support which he will receive in Bradford county, will prove him high in the estimation in which he is held there. Men who are trusted at home, where they are known and understood, can with safety be relied on abroad. When a man's neighbors, and those who daily come in contact with him, trust him, it is the evidence of his incorruptible integrity. In private, every day life, in the ordinary accustomed duties of individual service, is where character is made and reputation gained; and when this is made good at home it passes current abroad.

General Harrison Allen is most enthusiastically received in the district which he represented in both branches of the Legislature. Gen. Allen is largely engaged in private business there, and while travelling to attend to this, with no present design of formally opening the campaign, the greeting he receives from his old friends and neighbors indicates the cordial good feeling with which he is regarded at home. Strong in the confidence of his neighbors, esteemed by his associates, and respected by all who know him, Gen. Allen's vote at home will show how wisely a Republican convention acted in nominating him.—State Journal.

THE English House of Lords compromises four Princes of the blood, two archbishops, twenty-seven dukes, thirty-two marquises, one hundred and sixty-seven earls, thirty-six viscounts, twenty-four bishops, and one hundred and eighty-five barons.

Do a thing well and nobody will ask you how long you were about it.

A Song Of Praise.

Surely no nation, says the N. Y. Witness, was ever favored like America. The extent of the country and its inexhaustible resources; the number of the people and their enterprise and intelligence; the respect of other nations; rapidly increasing strength and wealth at home—all should render every heart among us grateful, and every mind magnanimous. For such a people to do little things or pursue a selfish policy seems impossible, and nothing can be more natural than the cordial invitation extended by it to other nations to come and share its unprecedented advantages. English, Irish, Scotch, Germans, Danes, Swedes, Norwegians and Poles, French and Italians, all are made welcome to equal privileges with the descendants of the Puritans, and Cavaliers, and Huguenots, who settled the country two hundred and fifty years ago.

The magnanimous treatement of those who endeavored in armed rebellion to take the national life, stands out in striking contrast with the conduct of any other nation that has quelled a rebellion. France itself, that claims to be a synonym for civilization and refinement, not only committed terrible massacres in putting down the Commune, but has kept up a fusilade ever since at Satory upon the miserable men engaged in its excesses.

America has great abundance of every thing that can make its people prosperous and happy, and this abundancis attracting an immense emigration from Europe. There are almost no limits to the growth of population and wealth, and education and religion are more than keeping pace with material progress.

We cannot but hope that all difficulty with Britain will soon be got over by some happy turn, and that the approaching Fourth of July may be kept as a national holiday without a cloud on the political horizon.

Mr. Buckalew's Patriotic Acts During The Rebellion.

[Bloomsburg Republican.]

The question has frequently been asked whether Mr. Buckalew did, during the rebellion, assist in opening the jail and voting the prisones confined there in the interest of rebellion. In reply we simply assert what is a commonly received fact here, and which even we think his organ, that answers all things by that familiar word "lie," will not dare to deny in the face of an entire community acquainted with the circumstance, viz: that Mr. Buckalew, the Democratic sheriff and the Commissioner's clerk did rob the county jail of some of its prisoners and took them to Buck Horn, where they voted the ticket of rebellion. The sheriff and commissioner's clerk were arrested and taken to Harrisburg by the United States Marshal, but Mr. Buckalew, by using his usual strategy, escaped. The deepest indignation was manifested by the citizens on account of this unheard of proceedure. It is said that the Southern Confederacy robbed the cradle and the tomb to destroy the Republic, and it is true that Buckalew robbed our county jail to help them. While this pleasing incident was transpir'ng, Hartranft was leaving his all to finish the noble work of our fathers, and helping to save, even though it should cost the sacrifice of his own life, the best government the world has ever seen. These facts are so well established that numerous affidavits can be furnished to substantiate them. This is the mild man that some forgetful Republicans are expected to vote for in opposition to a man that never was false to a trust and never a traitor to his country.

Good Reading For Democrats After The Nomination.

Forty-two Democrats of Stephenson county, Illinois, have signed their names to the following significant document:

FREEPORT, ILL., June 26.

"We, the undersigned, members of the Democratic party of Stephenson county, State of Illinois, still believing in Democratic principles and adhearing to our Democratic faith, declare that under no circumstances will we vote for Horace Greeley for president. If others are willing to sell out their principles we declare that we are not, and if sold out at Baltimore those who sell us or our votes to the support of the Greeley party cannot deliver our votes."

THE 'Miltonian' says, in reference to the estimate of the 'Press' claiming 500 Republicans in Northumberland county who will not vote the State ticket, "Now we do not believe there are twenty-five Republicans in this county who honestly prefer Charles R. Buckalew to General John F. Hartranft, or who intend to vote against the latter.

PAY UP.

We hate these duns and we know our readers do. Those who have paid, and always do pay in advance, need give themselves no concern about it; and those who owe us from TWO to FOUR years we are exceedingly anxious that THEY should give themselves some concern, and give their immediate attention to this DUN. We need our money and must have it. We, therefore, expect all who owe us for two years, or more, to PAY UP BETWEEN THIS DATE AND THE FIRST OF AUGUST NEXT. It is now about the beginning of hay-making and harvest, when everybody young and old has MONEY. Now, is the time to pay your printer's bill. Do not pay every other bill and forget us, simply because we are good natured and lenient.

If these bills are not punctually attended to by the 1st of August, we will then LOSE OUR GOOD NATURE for a time and place our bills against you, in the hands of a JUSTICE OF THE PEACE IN THE RESPECTIVE TOWNSHIPS IN THE COUNTY FOR COLLECTION. We repeat, that we need our money and must have it. We know that our patrons will heed this DUN, as they do not wish us to enter this campaign with our hands and our tonge tied.

HARTLEY'S BATTLES FOR TREASON.

The Democratic press of the State has been greatly incensed at our declaration that Hartley, the Democratic candidate for Auditor General had been arrested by Gen. Couch, during the war, for giving aid and comfort to treason. Now, to show how valiently Hartley did fight for treason, we extract the following from the Hollidaysburg Register, the editor of which is a true man, whose word passes like his bond wherever he is known:

The allusion of the Huntingdon Monitor to a rencounter between Wm. Hartley and the editor of this paper, during the rebellion, is unfortunate for its candidate for Auditor General. Hartley and the editor of this paper had a discussion in a store room in that place, Hartley siding and sympathising with the rebels, the editor of this paper taking the Union side, high words were the result, and Hartley struck at us. We immediately grappled with him, threw him upon the floor, and planted quite a number of well directed blows into his stomach, when we were pulled off him. Hartley panting for the breath we had knocked out of him. We were not kicked by him nor hurt in the least. This statement of the fact is well-known to be true in Bedford. It all was occasioned on account of the sympathy of Hartley for the rebels, and his hatred of the Union cause.

—That's the story in a nutshell. While other men were battling with exposed bosoms for the overthrow of rebellion, while the country was bleeding at every pore, and all true men were making every sacrifice in their power, this man Hartley, with the instincts of a sneak and a traitor, was lounging in country store rooms, blathering vulgar and insolent apologies and justifications for traitors, until he provoked the kicks and the blows of loyal men who heard him. For just such conduct as this Gen. Couch arrested him—and because he was thus captured and charged with treason Hartley is considered worthy of a place on the Democratic State ticket. It is thus settled that the highest merit for Democratic consideration in Pennsylvania is the claim of a loyal man's boot toe in the seat of a rebel sympathizer's breeches.

In addition to the above, the following from a later number of the Register is in the spirit in which the scribe alluded to received Hartley's nomination when it was announced to him. The Major is a competent witness so far as Hartley is concerned, and we believe he has a generally current idea of what is due to men of his own party of the Hartley stripe. This is what the Register says on this point:

Well do we remember threats, made in our presence, by the present assistant editor of the Patriot, whilst on a visit from the army to his home, to hang Hartley and others, for their outspoken treason and treasonable teachings. Little did we then think that he would ever be found on the same side with Hartley, and supporting him with his pen for office. But this is one of the strange, unaccountable things resulting from politics. Hartley is not entitled to the vote of any person who loves the Union or who fought against his rebel friends.

READ! READ!!

BUCKALEW A CORRUPT PUBLIC OFFICER, AND A MOST SHAMEFUL PLUNDERER.

The particular friends of Mr. Buckalew, including the Immaculate Forney, boast that he is an honest man. We deny the assertion, and can prove him to be one of the most shameful and dareing public plunderers in the State, and we challenge any person to deny it.

We have 33 Senators, and we find by the report of the Auditor General, that for the year ending Nov. 30, 1869, when that body had a majority of Republicans, the pay of the Senators for a whole session of the Legislature, including the mileage and stationery, was as follows:

Pay of members, including mileage and stationery	$35,475 30

At the last session of the Legislature a committee was appointed to investigate the election of Grey and McClure, which was composed of four Democrats and three Republicans. Of this committee Senator Buckalew was chairman, and had the casting vote. This committee altogether did not set, including all the sessions, more than five continuous days. It was held in Philadelphia. All the members had free tickets by rail, to travel backwards and forwards. All their expenses for board and liquors, &c., were paid by the State for this committee of seven, at the Washington House. They made the State pay a bill for their board, and use of a committee room, of $2,394,-35, equal to $324 for each member. All their assistants were paid heavily also, as the items of the shameful bill will show. The nembers of the committee were paid $1000 for their services as Senators. As Senators they made this investigation, and all extra expenses they had charged to the State—yet this committee, of which Mr. Buckalew was chairman, voted themselves $500 each out of the State Treasury in addition to their salary. The taking of this $500 additional out of the Treasury was absolute stealing. But Mr. Buckalew took it and sanctioned it. It amounted to about $75 pay for each member, for each meeting they held, which was open robbery—they stole it because they had the power to take it, just as a robber does when he has the power.

But this is not all—they stole for all their friends thousands of dollars, and run up a bill to the amount of no less than $26,065 11 for this investigation, when the actual expenses need not have exceeded $6,000, and would not have exceeded it, if conducted honestly. We here assert that convicted robbers, who are now serving out their time in the penitentiaries of the State, are not as guilty as this committee, because these persons were public officers, sworn to protect the interests of the people whom they represented, and the chairman who approved of and sanctioned such wholesale thieving, is the most criminal of the whole lot. Public plunderers and thieves may sanction such conduct and pronounce it honest, because there men had the power to steal in their public capacity; but no honest man, we care not to what party he may belong, can sanction such conduct, much less support such a man for Governor of the State, who would thus use his position to steal the public funds for himself and those around him. We denounce the Republican members of that committee just as much as we do the Democratic members; but the Democrats had the controlling power, and they had the power to check it, if even one of the members desired to do so—but they did not, and the chairman of the committee approved of it.

Here are the items of expenses of that swindling committee, which is unparalleled in the history of the State:

For reporters and their assistants	$2,557 50
For printing evidence, 500 copies	1,703 26
Geo. J. Bolton's bill (Washington House)	2,391 35
Sergeant-at-arms and assistants	350 00
Clerical and messengers service for Committee	800 00
John A Longbridge, prothonotary	45 00
Contestant for 1,619 witnesses in attendance	1,572 60
Contestant for serving subpœnas	180 00
Respondent for 935 witnesses paid by committee	1,402 50
Respondent for serving subpœnas	1,591 00
Printing subpœna cards	64 00
Making election boxes, express charges and miscellaneous	125 00
Unpaid witnesses of respondent	1,430 00
A. K. McClure (extraordinary expenses)	2,500 00
H. W. Gray, " "	2,500,00
A. K. McClure (salary)	1,000 00
H. W. Gray, "	1,000 00
Seven Senators, comprising the committee, at $500 each	3,500 00
Total	$26,660 11

This is only $9,409 19 less than the pay of the Senators for a whole session, including mileage and stationery, in 1869. Reader, did you ever see such items of expenses for a committee sitting altogether only about five continuous days?

Not one-fourth of these witnesses were examined. Every swindling charge that was presented by both parties was accepted by this committee and ordered to be paid, it made no difference about the amount; and McClure served eighteen or twenty days, and they paid him his salary for the whole session, and paid him and Grey also extraordinary expenses, each $2500. Now, recollect, reader, that honest man Buckalew was a member of this committee, and chairman, with the controlling vote, and he could have checked this infamous stealing of the public money, if he chose, by refusing to sanction it; but did he do it? An honest chairman would have said at once that he would not sanction such wholesale stealing of the public funds of the State; and if that would not have been sufficient, he would have refused to serve in that position. But did he do it? If he did, we never heard of it before; and, therefore, of course he sanctioned it, and therefore, is the most guilty robber of the whole committee, for he professes to be, and his friends say he is, an honest man. We deny it, and we have adduced the proof in the above swindling bill of an investigation Committee of which he was a member, in session only a few days, and which, we repeat, is unparalleled in stealings by members of the Legislature.

A few years ago when we were the presiding officer of the School Board, three-fourths of the Districts were persuaded into buying a piece of land which they did not want. We discovered that they were determined to do it, when we declared to the Directors that they might pass a resolution to buy it, but we would never sign the order for the money to pay for it; that we would sooner make an appeal to the people if necessary, to defeat it. They did not pass the resolution to buy it, and it was not bought. Buckalew, as chairman of this Committee, if an honest man, could have done the same.

After such a bill sanctioned by Buckalew, can any honest man say that he is an honest man, and ought to be elected Governor of Pennsylvania? Ought not he and the other members of this committee, and its aiders and abettors, be now serving a term in the penitentiary for such bare-faced robbery, if justice was done them? There are many men who have been convicted under the laws of the State for stealing, and are serving terms in the penitentiary, who are not half as guilty as the members of the committee are. Let Forney and all his Democratic allies deny the above if they dare, and in defiance of his assertion to the contrary, we pronounce Mr. Buckalew a dishonest and corrupt legislator, and therefore too dishonest to be elected Governor of this State, independent of his rebel propensities during the rebellion.—Miners' Journal.

WHERE WAS CHARLES R. BUCKALEW THEN?

There was a time, not long since, it is even remembered by the young, when every home was agitated by the crime of treason. Fathers and mothers inspired by a love for country only second to Deity, gave their sons to the cause of human freedom. Before the dignity of this sacrifice mere politics sunk into insignificance, and the American people rose to a plane never occupied by any nation on earth. When rebel guns were opened upon Sumpter, the heart of the nation was stirred to its depths, and every man that could rise above party joined in the cry for Union. With one accord the people, Republicans, abolitionists, true Democrats said "the Union must and shall be preserved." For the moment noblemen of all parties impelled by patriotism forgot former ties and gave words of cheer to the heroic band of patriots that exposed themselves to rebel bullets. If amid these heroic times C. R. Buckalew uttered one word of cheer to his country's defenders, we should be pleased to hear it. When the voice of that earnest Democrat of New York, Daniel S. Dickenson was stirring the heart of the nation by its patriotic fervor, or that Democrat John A. Dix, was uttering the memorable words, "Shoot the first man that attempts to haul down the American flag," where was Mr. Buckalew then?" Mr. Buckalew was standing on the court house steps in Bloomsburg, and making the well-remembered speech in which he said of the honored Lincoln, whose grave shall ever be watered by the tears of a grateful people:

"Fellow citizens, when I landed in New York from South America, and found that Abe Lincoln, the rail splitter of Illinois, was president, and W. H. Seward his secretary, I was humiliated.

NEVERMORE! NEVERMORE!—Is the sad exclamation of the invalid, who has abandoned for some worthless compound, sterling medicinal preparation. If any sufferer from Dyspepsia, Constipation, Billiousness, or Debility, has been lured, in a week moment from either of those two sovereign Vegetable Specifics, Hoofland's German Bitters or, Hoofland's Tonic, and induced to "run after strange gods," "Nevermore! Nevermore!" is his cry, as he returns, disgusted, to the standard remedy. Sold by all Druggists.

HUMILITY is a grace that adorns and beautifies every other grace; without it, the most splendid natural and acquired acquisitions lose their charms.

IT IS A CRIME AGAINST DEMOCRACY.

Under this heading the Pottsville Standard, the Democratic organ of Schuylkill county, has a lengthy and very bitter article against the surrender of the Democracy to Horace Greeley. The editor says:

"That there will any results, save disgraceful defeat and total disintegration of Democracy, proceed from the consummation of the sale and transfer at Baltimore, we do not believe. The plot has been skillfully and deeply laid; the most minute details having been arranged, leaving nothing to be completed save the formal transfer.

"What a spectacle will be there presented. The delegated representatives of THREE MILLION Democrats striking their colors and hauling down the old flag, in obedience to a summons to surrender, from a squad of guerrillas, who no more reflect an atom of political strength than shadow represents substance. It will be an act of skulking treachery, alongside of which the treason of Arnold will appear respectable, and the cowardice of Hull wear the halo of chivalry."

"We make this humiliating admission," says the editor, "not because our views in regard to its propriety have undergone a change, but only as a confession of the depth of groveling, cowardly baseness the managers and trimmers of a great and powerful political party have attained to.

THE Baltimore American says: "Republicans earnestly desired that Mr. Greeley should be made the regular nominee of the Democratic Convention because they are convinced that it is easier to defeat him than any veteran Democrat of good standing and honorable record. The astute sharpers in politics who have him in training have succeeded wonderfully well in continuing the humbug of his assumed popularity and the supreme virtues of those whose candidate he is, and to-day they have actually fooled three-fourths of a great national party into putting their trust in the fraud of the Cincinnati nominations. After Democrats have had the scales knocked from their eyes by the experience of another reverse the sorest wound will be their remembrance of how much they threw away to receive nothing in return."

A FACT worth remembering—Five cents worth of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders, given to a horse twice a week, will save double that amount in grain, and the horse will be fatter, sleeker, and every way worth more money than though he did not have them.

Married ladies, under all circumstances, will find Parson's Purgative Pills safe; and in small dose a mild cathartic. They cause no griping pains or cramp.

A NEW CANDIDATE FOR PUBLIC FAVOR.

THE NEW VICTOR SEWING MACHINE!

THE NEW VICTOR SEWING MACHINE!

BY ONE WHO KONWS:

A good sewing Machine I long have sought,
And tried them all but found it not,
Until the New Victor it came out,
And now I have one without a doubt.

It runs so easy and sews so nice,
I would not be without it for any price.
Its self-setting needle is so neat,
And everything else is most complete.

It sews through thin, it sews through thick,
And when you sew it never sticks,
So when you sew, you have no trouble—
I'd have a VICTOR if it's price were double.

READ! READ! READ!

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL WHO ARE IN WANT OF A SEWING MACHINE.

The New Sewing Machine VICTOR has not its equal in the world for family sewing. It is made of the finest material and of most perfect finish, and no pains or expense is spared to make the Victor Sewing Machine, in all its points, fitted to meet the wants of every family in the land.

TWELVE GOOD REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BUY THE VICTOR:

1.—It is the only Lock-Stitch Machine that has its needle Self-Setting.
2.—All lost motion can be readily taken up in all its parts.
3.—The needle being Straight, and Self-Setting, much of the perplexity and trouble to new beginners is avoided, as the needle cannot be set wrong.
4.—It has a positive Thread Controller and Tension, which enables it to sew with equal precision, from the most delicate texture to the heaviest material.
5.—It uses with equal facility Silk, Linen, or Cotton Thread.
6.—It uses the same size thread on the under as on the upper side, and sews across the heaviest seam, or from one to many thicknesses of cloth, without change of needle, tension or thread.
7.—There are no springs or cog wheels to break and get out of order.
8.—It is the simplest and strongest family sewing machine of all the varieties now in use.
9.—Every motion is positive, and it runs light and easy.
10.—The shuttle is carried on an independent table, which prevents its wearing out, and at the same time does away with oiling, thus avoiding greasing the work.
11.—It is simple in its construction, and the most inexperienced person can operate and regulate it.
12.—Its price is as low as any other first-class machine, and should be tried by all who want a good, reliable machine. This new machine can be seen at the large Ware Room, where all are invited to call and see it operate. Having confidence that the Victor will meet with public favor, we are willing, when parties desire to purchase, to send it to their homes on trial, with complete instructions how to use it. Every Machine is Warranted. Traveling Agents Wanted.

MRS. IRWIN'S BUILDING, ALLEGHENY St., BELLEFONTE, PA.

The tax of 2 cents on checks, drafts and orders is all of schedule B that is retained.

And this is the detail of stamp abolitions in the law of June 6th 1872.

Section thirty sixth of the new law, and this section especially pertains to stamp duties, reads as follows:

That on and after the first day of October, 1872, all the taxes imposed by stamps under and by virtue, of Schedule B, of section 170 of the act approved June 30th, 1864, and the several acts amendatory thereof, be and the same are hereby, repealed, excepting only the tax of two cents on bank checks, drafts, or orders: Provided, That where any mortgage has been executed and recorded, or may be excuted and recorded, or before the 1st day of October, A. D. 1872, to secure the payment of bonds or obligations, that may be made and issued from time to time, and such mortgage not being stamped, all such bonds or obligations so made and issued on or after said 1st day of October, A. D. 1872, shall not be subject to any stamp duty, but only such of their bonds or obligations as may have been made and issued before the day aforesaid: And provided further, That, in the meantime, the holder of any instrument of writing of whatever kind and description which has been made or issued without being duly stamped make application to any collector of internal revenue, and that upon application, such collector shall there upon affix the stamp provided by such holder upon such instrument of writing as required by law to be put upon the same, and subject to the provisions of section 158 of the internal revenue laws.

No man is so insignificant as to be sure his example can do no hurt.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

Below will be found the Resolutions adopted by the convention which placed in nomination Gen John F. Hartranft, Hon. Ulysses Mercur, Gen. Harrison Allen and the entire State Ticket. The Resolutions were written by that clear headed and efficient Republican—Russel Errett, Esq., and have the true ring. Republicans, workingmen and all honest Democrats, can safely stand upon this platform. Let them be carried out in good faith and there need be no fears entertained in regard to the salvation and perpetuity of the government either State or national:

1. That we reaffirm our devotion to the principles of the Republican party, and our belief that the continued existence of that party is necessary to the maintenance and success of those principles. The grand and fundamental idea of the equality of all men in political rights is not professed by any other party, and can be sustained faithfully only by those who are sincerely committed to it.

2. That the adoption of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States has not been sufficiently acquiesced in by all to render certain and secure their permanent incorporation in that instrument, and hence the administration of the government can safely be entrusted only to that party which is heartily, and beyond question, committed to them, and the policy necessary to put them into successful operation.

2. That we are now, more than ever, called to sustain the policy of national protection to American industry. If the laborer is worthy of his hire, and a fair day's work entitles the worker to a fair day's pay, we must continue to throw the protecting arm of the government around those who toil for their daily bread. The protective policy alone makes labor contented and capital secure. It renders employment certain, and pay ample and satisfactory; whilst free trade means that our laborers and mechanics must either work for lower wages or that our factories should be closed through foreign competition, and the workingmen of the country deprived of employment.

4. That the public lands belong to the people, and should be reserved for the people. We, therefore, pronounce most decidedly against any further appropriation of the public lands in behalf of corporations or individuals. All lands not sold according to law should be open to preemption and actual settlement.

5. That we demand a continued adherence to the policy hitherto pursued, under Republican auspices, in our State and in the nation, of a steady and gradual reduction of the public debt. The interests of the people require that the most rigid economy should be practiced in the administration of both the Nation and the State governments, and that taxes should be reduced in both as rapidly as is consistent with the honorable maintenance of the public credit, and the certain extinguishment of all the public debt.

6. That we are earnestly in favor of the earliest possible removal of the duties on tea and coffee, and urge the prompt passage of the bill for that purpose now before Congress.

7. That we heartily approve of the act of Gen. Grant in giving a trial to the plan of civil service reform. We demand that the plan, or any other that may be substituted in its place as better, shall have a fair and unembarrassed trial, that every effort shall be made to secure competent men for public service, and that honesty and incorruptibility shall be deemed qualifications as essential as competency and intelligence.

8. That the Republican party has given full evidence during the past eleven years of its ability to administer the government honestly, faithfully and successfully. It has, within that time, maintained the honor of our National flag at home and abroad; preserved the Union from disruption and restored it in its integrity; secured to all classes and conditions of men the rights given to them by their Maker, and having proclaimed liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof, has given to that proclamation the full effect to which it was entitled; and we therefore, in its name, claim from the people a continuance of their confidence, and fearlessly challenge their scrutiny into its acts.

9. That we point with pride to the record of Gen. Grant's administration of the National Government. Not only has the weight of internal taxation been almost wholly removed from the people's shoulders, but three hundred millions of the national debt have been paid off—a result never before attained by any other people under like circumstances, and for which we are indebted to the rigid honesty, strict economy and sterling integrity which the President has brought to the administration of a national affairs.

10. That we present his name for renomination to the Presidency, confident that the people will again rally to the support of the man who so nobly fought their battles; who, under the guidance through its struggle to maintain its existence, and who has since so successfully administered the affairs of the government as to command general admiration, at home and abroad.

11. That we will stand by the government in the foreign policy so firmly marked out and adhered to by President Grant. The honor of the nation, we feel, is safe in his hands, and the flag under which he never suffered defeat, will not be dishonored while he is kept in the front.

12. That we congratulate the people of Pennsylvania on the final accomplishment of the call for a convention to revise and amend the Constitution of the State and we earnestly urge upon our friends to see that delegates are chosen in their respective districts committed to the policy of incorporating in that instrument a clear and decisive prohibition of special legislation.

13 That we hereby declare our opposition to every effort to withdraw from the sinking fund of the Commonwealth, either by substitution, exchange or otherwise, any of the bonds, securities or moneys now pledged to it, and through it to the payment of the public debt of the Commonwealth, and our inflexible determination to preserve the same, inviolably, for the fulfillment of the Commonwealth's obligations.

14. That the oil producing, mining, lumbering and manufacturing interest of the State require protection from the efforts of dangerous combinations, and that such laws should be enacted by the General Assembly of this Commonwealth as will protect said interest, both in their development and the transportation of their productions to market.

15. That the thanks of our party are due to Governor John W. Geary, under whose lead our principles have twice been successfully vindicated in Pennsylvania; the State debt has been reduced during his administration; our soldiers orphans have been carefully cherished and educated; and our laws have been efficiently and wisely enforced. Under the necessity of parting with him as Governor, in conformity with the Constitution of the State, Governor Geary carries with him in his retirement the heartfelt wishes of its people for his future prosperity and happiness.

16. That we present with peculiar pride and especial confidence of their success, the names of Gen. John F. Hartranft for Governor, Ulysses Mercur for Supreme Judge, Gen. Harrison Allen for Auditor General, and the gentlemen this day named for delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention. They are all men worthy of an active and ardent support at the hands of the Republican party, and we call upon our friends throughout the State to rally as one man to secure their triumphant election.

17. That the President of this Convention, in connection with the candidates this day nominated for State officers appoint the chairman and one Secretary of the State Central Committee, and that the State Committee be made up on the basis adopted last year, and the two years preceding.

Sour Fructations, Sinking or Fluttering at Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

Hoofland's German Bitters.

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure Juices, or VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS, and BARKS, (or, as medicinally termed, Extracts,) the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore in one Bottle of this Bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons or ordinary mixtures. The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist, and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, when they compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this Bitters is free from the objections urged against all others: no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases when some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the Tonic properties of the Bitters. Each bottle of the tonic contains one bottle of the Bitters, combined with pure SANTA CRUZ RUM, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the bitters is overcome forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. The price of the Tonic is $1,50 per Bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article? A medicinal preparation should contain none but the best ingredients; and they who expect to obtain a cheap compound, and be benefittad by it, will most certainly be cheated.

Who would ask for more Dignified or Stronger Testimony?

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania at present Member of Congress from Pennsylvania, writes:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1871.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in case of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON, JAS. THOMPSON, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1867.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my own experience of it.
Yours, with respect, JAS. THOMPSON.

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1, 1868.

I have found by experience that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a very good tonic, relieving dyspeptic symptoms almost directly.
GEORGE SHARSWOOD

HON. JAS. M. WOOD, Ex-Mayor of Williamsport, Pa.

I take great pleasure in recommending "Hoofland's German Tonic" to any one who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia. I had the Dyspepsia so badly it was impossible to keep any food on my stomach, and I became so week, as not to be able to walk half a mile. Two bottles of Tonic effected a perfect cure. JAMES M. WOOD.

REMEMBER
THAT
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Will Cure every Case of
MARASMUS,
Or Wasting away of the Body.
REMEMBER
THAT
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES
Are the medicines you require to purify the Blood, excite the torpid Liver to healthy action, and to enable you to pass safely through any hardships or exposure.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
PODOPHYLLIN,
Or Substitue for Mercury Pills.
TWO PILLS A DOSE.
The Most Powerful, Yet Innocent Vegetable Cathartic Known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these Pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the Liver, Stomach and Bowels all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the Alcoholic Extract of Mandrake, which is by many times more powerful, acting and searching than the Mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the Liver, cleaning it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of Mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases, in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They NEVER FAIL.

In cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic should be used in connection with the Pills. The tonic effect of the Bitters or Tonic builds up the system. The Bitters or Tonic purifies the Blood, strengthens the Nerves, REGULATES the Liver, and gives strength, energy and vigor.

Keep your Bowels active with the Pills, and tone up the system with Bitters or Tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

Recollect that it is DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES that are so universally used and highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. VINEGAR BITTERS
VEGETABLE — FREE FROM — ALCOHOL
PURELY — D. WALKER'S — CALIFORNIA
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain longun well, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual on the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Typesetters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS twice a week.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safe-guard in cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassfull. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

LOCK HAVEN AND REFORMATION.—In the Clinton Democrat of the 18th inst., printed in the fast City of Lock Haven, we find it published that "A movement for the suppression of vice and immorality in Lock Haven, was inaugurated by the Ministers of the different religious denominations last Tuesday night," (16th inst). And after the organization of the meeting and the appointment of Committees" adjourned to meet on the 2nd of August.

The object of the movement, as stated, is to concentrate the religious and moral influencencesof the public, through the co-operative efforts of the Ministers, in a movement that will check and suppress as far as possible the vicious elements of society in Lock Haven, manifest in intemperance, prostitution, profanity and Sabbath breaking.

The Editor then says; "This is a move in the right direction" and "that there is a field here for such operations as they propose," &c. This is truly a sad picture of Lock Haven, and the moral status of its denizens, and the reason and cause of the assembling of the different religious denominations, as given by the editor and would certainly justify the Poet in saying, that,

"Man of all creation the most fierce and wild
That e'er God made, or the Devil Spoil'd," is found in Lock Haven, Clinton county, Penna.

MILLHEIM, July 19, 1872.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

Kleckner & Co's., Circus, Caravan and Menagerie, exhibited at Millheim yesterday. The procession passed through town about 11 o'clock, in the following order. Band first, followed by one Elephant, (though two were advertised), and whether this Elephant was the great "Siam," or the little companion "Sultana," we do not know; but it was a very small Elephant, then two Dromedaries, and a few ponies, after which the dens containing the animals. A great many people witnessing the "Grand Procession." We, with some others paid a visit to this "Great Mastodon," to see "a specimen of every beast, birds and reptile that can be procured in Europe, Asia, Africa and America. But in this we were most egregiously fooled. A den of serpents containing 13 huge specimens, we failed to see, and we didn't see any one that did see them. The Horned Horse, double backed camels, and a great many other animals advertised, we failed to see, and we doubt very much whether any one else saw them. My impression is, that they were not about.

Among the list of advertised artists, we did not see Harry King, Campbell the double somersaultist and some others. Do not know where they were—sick or some place else.

I notice in your issue of July 17th, you speak of a troupe of "Genuine Bedouins Arabs." They may have Arabs with this "stupenous organization," but we do doubt whether they are genuine Bedouins. If the tents are water proof then we say, a sieve is also water proof. We had an opportunity of testing it on last Thursday afternoon, during a shower. The evening performance was slimly attended. The usual amount of candy, lemonade, fans, prize packages, song books, photographs, &c., were sold inside of these water proof tents.

CAPT. R. B. BARGER;—SIR: I am not accustomed to writing for the newspapers; but I thought I would try it once, for the purpose of informing you that the Republicans of Benner township, are sound to the core for Grant and Wilson, Hartranft, Allen, and the whole State ticket. Our Democratic friends do not like the action of their leaders at Baltimore. They declare that they will never vote for Horace Greeley, and a few with whom I have conversed say that they will not vote for C. R. Buckalew, because he counselled in faver of the shameful bargain and sale at Baltimore, of the Democratic party of Greeley and the Liberal, Republican Abolitionists. I have frequently heard them d—n Greeley and Brown, and declare that they would punish their leaders for such base treachery. They say that if Greeley is elected it kills the Democratic party, and if Greeley is not elected it kills it deader—so dead that it will never know a political resurrection. They say if they must give up their own party and confess that they have, or had no man in the Democratic party, fit competant, or available for the Presidency, they will abandon the sinking ship, and vote for Grant & Wilson and thus go the "whole hog or none".

But what I wanted particularly to call your attention to, is the nomination and election of Levi A. Miller, to the Sheriff's office of Centre county. Here, we all know Levi. We know his capacity. We know his popularity and his strength. He will get help from the Democrats. In short I feel confident that if nominated he will certainly be elected. Everybody here is for Levi A. Miller. Give us a good ticket—an independent ticket, if the leaders think best, and success is ours.

BENNER.

RECOLLECT that the "County Normal Institute" opens to-day, (July 24th). We trust every teacher in the County, who possibly can, will attend. Advancement should be the motto of every teacher; and an opportunity like this, which is offered but once a year, and for a limited time, should not be unheeded.

Prominent among the features of the Institute is a course of weekly evening lectures. The following named gentlemen have been engaged to lecture:—A. O. First, N. L. Atwood, D. F. Fortney, Esqs., Revs. D. M. Wolf, J. Keller Miller, and Nathan J. Mitchell. These Lectures will be free to the public.

Dr. Calder, John H. Orvis, General Beaver and W. W. Brown have also been invited.

DON'T GIVE LIQOR TO CHILDREN.—One of the first literary men in the United States said to the writer, after speaking on the subject of temperance: "There is one thing which, as you visit different places, I wish you to do everywhere, that is to entreat every mother never to give a drop of strong drink to a child. I have had to fight as for my life and all my days, to keep from dying a drunkard, because I was fed with spirits when a child. I acquired a taste for it. My brother, poor fellow, died a drunkard. I would not have a child of mine take a drop of it for anything. Warn every mother, wherever you go, never to give a drop to a child."—[EXCHANGE.

SPOT THEM.—Whenever one is puzzled respecting the whereabouts of any one of the principal military leaders of the Lost Cause, says the Pittsburg Commercial, search for him in the "Liberal" movement and he will generally come to light. Here are a few examples in reconstructed States: In Louisiana, Beauregard and Hays; in Texas John B. Hood; in Mississippi, Featherston, Walthall and Hnmphreys; in Alabama, Pettus, Morgan and Raphael Semmes; in Georgia, Gordon, Benning, Wofford and Wright; in South Carolina, Hampton and Kershaw; in North Carolina, Hill and Ramsey; in Virginia, Imboden and Pickett; in Tennessee, Forest, Bates, Cheatham and Brown. What is the reason that these leaders of the rebel armies, most of whom are to-day as unrepentant as thay ever were, are rallying under the Greeley banner—for that there is a reason none can doubt? Let us see. The journals of the Southern States are reproducing his editorials in favor of secession and letting the South go in peace. Thus the New Orleans Picayune says it does not believe he would "refuse to sanction the appeal of those States, as a last resort to the remedy of peaceable withdrawal from the jurisdiction of the Federal authority." To the plain and unsophisticated mind this looks marvelously like speculation concerning the chances of another attempt at secession, in case of his election to the Presidency. Do the people propose to give him and his Southern followers another opportunity of accomplishing that which they failed in ten years ago.

THE FOURTH AT BOALSBURG.—The friends of Boalsburg Academy, and the Boalsburg Saxe-Horn Band, with the citizens generally invited, in holding a Pic-nic, in Stewart's Grove, on the Fourth of July. A goodly number of former pupils of the Academy were present. An appropriate and impressive address of welcome, was delivered by a present pupil, B. Frank Keller; patriotic songs were sung, led by Miss Clara Keller and Annie Cooper; the Band played some of their choice selections; and after dinner which was too nice to tell of—responses to Toasts were made by Rev. Prof. D. M. Wolf, of Bellefonte, a former Instructor in the Academy, by Messrs H. Keller, C. Dale and A. A. Dale, former pupils, at present College Students, and on the part of the Band by a member of it, Mr. A. J. Williams, followed by Prof. St John, who highiy complimented Boalsburg for its morality. All present, the young folks especially, seemed to enjoy themselves highly. The Band realized a considerable sum from the sale of Ice-cream, &c., on the grounds and in the evening, which is to be appropriated to refitting their instruments. Altogether the re-union pic-nic was a success.

G.

IT is but justice to the real friends of temperance to say that the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of the United States and of this State has positively and emphatically refused to sanction any political movement within the order, so that all politico-temperance nominations for governmental offices are in direct violation of regular rules, and an insult to the unity, peace and dignity of the Lodge of Good Templars. Mr. James Black, as a sort of low comedy candidate for president of the United States, and the temperance nominees for State officers, are all in a position to antagonize the organic regulations of an order in whose name they rush into politics, and whose sacred purity in moral affairs they seek recklessly to pollute in order that they may minister to a personal ambition the most ridiculous as well as presumptuous ever displayed by impracticable men. As a year ago, so in October and November, the genuine temperance men will treat all nominations of candidates for political offices, on temperance platforms, with the contempt they deserve.—State Journal.

LAST Thursday night a Grant Democratic Campaign Club was organized in Chicago with a starting membership of one hundred and fifty old-line Democrats, who pledge themselves to "support General Grant in preference to any other candidate for the Presidency."—What does the Greeley organ in Pittsburg think of that? These men cannot be "read out of the party," because there is no Democratic party any more, "poor soul, peace to its ashes," and its members are free to vote for whom they please.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

THE Chicago Times, in a double-leaded editorial recently declares that the Baltimore convention will be thoroughly a Greeley convention, and says that it does not hesitate to predict that Greeley will be in 1872 a worse beaten man than Scott in 1852. It calls on the Democrats to organize a new party, with the principles of the recent Liberal conference in New York.

THE latest recruit to Greeley is Winans, the member of the New York Legislature who sold himself to the Erie Ring for $20,000, and who was pronounced by the Tribune at the time the greatest rascal of the period. All who go for Greeley may not be rascals, but all the rascals appear to be going for Greeley.

THE COURT HOUSE RING.

THE AUDITORS REPORTS CONFLICTING—FRAUDS UPON THE TAX-PAYERS.

COL. W. W. BROWN:

Home again, after an absence of some months, permitting the county finances and custodeans of the people's money to have and enjoy the illusion that the end of CATO's strictures, since the 24th of April had passed, not to be revived again. If such was their opinion, it was not my intention, as I had determined to pursue them at my own convenience, and clearly prove by the Auditors Report that instead of the county having the means to pay its indebtedness and a surplus of $3,482,00 as stated in the Auditors Report—the county is indebted by that same report as I have shown $4,660,00 and upwards. I now declare that the report of the County Commissioners and Auditors is deceptive and only to be noted:

"For ways that are dark
And tricks that are vain."

I have stated that the Auditors Report of January, 1871, was more in compliance with the Law than the Report of 1872. For instance, in the Auditors Report of January, 1871, Simon Lingle is published as a defaulting tax-collector of Liberty township for the year 1865, in the sum of $242,22. And in the published Auditors Report of 1872, charged with outstanding taxes in the same sum of $342,22 and directly under it, the words:

"Paid since settlement	$228 34
"Paid since settlement	263 93
Making	$482 27

If Mr. Lingle paid this sum instead of $242,22, he was grossly wronged. But he did not pay it, as he is marked as paying the 242,22 into the Treasury after the settlement of 1872 and before publication. Then what collector or collectors are entitled to the credit of paying the $482,27 on account of the "outstanding taxes?" Why not give them their individual credit? And why not let the the tax-paying citizens know who these collectors are, that are paying off their indebtedness in due time?

But it appears this was not the object of the Commissioners. Their pets and favorite political collectors must have their defalcations covered up, and therefore, the Commissioners resort to the deceptive course pursued in the Auditor's Report of 1872—to intersperce under the head of "Taxes outstanding" the words "paid since settlement," which if true should have been credited to the individual township collectors. Nor is this all. The several sums paid by the defaulting collectors and published in the Auditors Report as "paid since settlement" are charged as debt due the county, and assist in making the sum of $38,097,70 of "Taxes outstanding."

Where was the necessity for such deception in 1872? What was the object of it? Will the Commissioners, or their clerk explain? And if they do explain let them go a step further, and inform the people the reason and cause they have for showing such favoritism for D. F. Fortney. Is it because he has been placed, at the head of the Democratic County Committee, where he can handle the electioneering funds this fall, that they have placed a "dagger" to the Tax-defaulter's name, stating at the bottom that he had paid $1200 since settlement? If they mean he has paid $1200 in money into the Treasury, it is false. But why make such a distinction between this political pauper, and Henry Cartin who was collector of the same Borough of Bellefonte, after D. F. Fortney?

They published Mr. Cartin as a defaulter to the amount of $1,194,45. You, Colonel, published Mr. Cartin's reply, or statement in the Republican. I have it—not by me—and will have to rely upon the facts as I remember them.

It appears by Mr. Cartin's statement that he was collector for one year; that within that year he collected the taxes and paid them into the Treasury, only retaining such sum as he claimed for his per centage and exonerations, and gave his statement and figures to this effect. Then, why not give him credit for the money he paid into the Treasury, and "star" or "dagger" him a credit of "Paid since settlement?"

Was he not more deserving of it than Fortney? They must admit this; but the Ring thought to blarney Mr. Cartin, and use him to cover the embezzlement of the Chairman of the Democratic, now Greeley Committee. They were, however, mistaken in this. Mr. Cartin is an honest, educated and intelligent Irishman and must have seen the tricks of the Court House Ring, to catch the Irish vote. The Commissioners and Auditors supposed he would submit to anything and do anything to hold his fellow Irishmen in the party traces.—Hence, they reasoned Mr. Cartin would submit to be published as a defaulting tax-collector by them with impunity, for the sake of D. F. Fortney, and assist them in securing the Irish vote when needed.

I have shown that the Commissioners and Auditor's falsified in their Report, when they published Henry Cartin as a tax-defaulter, and I shall prove moreover, that the whole Report is an attempted imposition upon the tax-payers of the county as I proceed. I will also show that the tax-payers' money has been squandered upon political loafers and paupers, by the County Commissioners, until the county indebtedness has become immense and the county taxes burthensome.

CATO.

BUSINESS PRINCIPLES APPLIED TO NEWSPAPERS.

The following from the Easton Argus, contains as much sound practical sense as anything we have ever seen on the subject of newspaper business:

It is high time that there should be a radical reform in the loose and ruinous credit system upon which the country newspapers of Pennsylvania are almost without exception carried on. It is high time that the conductors of public journals should make their readers cognizant of the fact that they have the same right to full and prompt payment for the thing that they have to sell that the banker, the shoemaker, or the farmer, or the blacksmith has to the fruit of his toil, and that when a man takes a paper without paying for it, he "patronizes" the publisher in precisely the same sense in which a thief who steals a quarter of beef "patronizes" the butcher. It is positively shameful and enough to make one blush, to read the humble appeals to delinquent subscribers, in which country editors are too apt to indulge. One would fancy, to read one of these touching specimens of mendicant eloquence, that the people who had gobbled the poor man's paper for years, had enjoyed the fruits of his brains and labor, and had eaten up his capital, were charitable dogs who had already, by doing all these gracious things, quite overwhelmed him with benevolence, and of whom, therefore, it was "cheeky" and improper to ask more. What merchant would think of begging for the bad debts on his books in this abject style—of imploring the chaps who had tricked him out of coffee or sugar to "please pay up"—to "remember the poor grocer," and the like. The plan of all men in business, except editors, is either to exact cash or give a reasonable credit, and when their accounts are due to present their bills, and if these are not paid, to collect them promptly by process of law. The editor too often wonders whether Mr. Snocks or Mr. Jinks, who is in arrears for years on his list, will "stop his paper" if strong measures are taken to make him honest. Well, suppose Mr. Snooks and Mr. Jinks both "stop" the papers for which they won't pay, is anything lost to the publisher by that freak of indignation on the part of those virtuous men? Does the dry goods merchant, when he finds that Mr. Diddler is deaf to all appeals for cash, and is always "not in" when his bill is sent to him, hesitate about suing that gentleman, for fear Mr. Diddler will "stop" his muslin or broadcloth? Or rather does he not, like a sensible man, "stop" Mr. Diddler's muslin and broadcloth for him, and see that he has paid for what he has got already before he gets any more.

Again. No merchant who did not absolutely solicit ruin would think of selling on credit to each of two or three thousand customers, nearly all strangers to him, and scattered over the area of a whole county, an umbrella of the value of two dollars, leaving it to the discretion of the purchasers when to pay for their goods. He would very properly say to these people, if they were bold enough to ask such a credit of him, that it was much easier for each one of them to pay cash than for him to incur the delay, risk, expense and the trouble of making out two or three thousand bills and hunting up two or three thousand debtors, a year hence.—He would argue that a man who needed an umbrella worth two dollars, could either afford to pay for it or endure the inconvenience of going without it, and he would refuse to imperil his own credit by selling goods bought on short time to a multitude of purchasers who might never pay, or who would be out of reach when his bill should fall due in the city.

Yet this very thing, which no merchant could consent to do without losing his standing as a business man, probably going into bankruptcy, is just what every publisher of a country newspaper does habitually and under the constraint of a long-established "system." Substitute newspapers for umbrellas and the cases are identical. The materials the labor, everything else essential to the issue of a newspaper are paid for in cash. On the other hand the printed sheet is sold on credit, and on credit which has no fixed limit. The very smallness of each man's account makes him fancy that it can be a matter of little concern whether he pays it to-day or a year hence. "What are two dollars to the publishers of the Argus?"

Well, they are two dollars, and multiplied by two or three thousand, they get to be so much more than two dollars that if we had the sum total in our pockets instead of scattered broadcast over the land in the pockets of other people, we could pay our debts, improve our newspaper, and have something to spare.

In the case of a large number of people, probably the majority, who neglect or delay to pay for their papers, the plea of thoughtlessness may be put. If the debt were a hundred dollars instead of two dollars or four, it would be before their minds constantly and they would provide against it. But, on the other hand, they are reminded weekly on the margin of their papers of the state of their accounts, and if the debt is small, it is so much the more easily paid. The man who is too poor to pay for a paper is too poor to subscribe for one—and, if he must have the news and has no money, he should tell the publisher so and leave it to that gentleman to decide whether he can afford or not to give him the news for nothing.

IT is very clear to the impartial observer of the political situation in Pennsylvania that General Hartranft is gaining instead of losing strength. The crusade against him has developed the fact that he is sought to be made a subject of sacrifice, in order to gratify malignant personal hate of others; and being now convinced of this, the people are resolved to stand by Hartranft, because he is honest and honorable, faithful and competent.—Journal.

HOW TO GO WEST.—This is an enquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and from the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Centre County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

"This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa. no-28-4-mo.

MARRIED.

On Thursday, June 20th 1872, in Tyrone, at the residence of the bride's mother, by Rev. S. M. Moore, Mr. R. M. Magee, County Superintendent of Centre County' to Miss Mary Hope Nolan, of Tyrone.

DIED.

Of Cholera Infantum in this Borough Esther Ann Ray daughter of Robert and Elizabeth Ray aged about Six months.

On the 17th inst., in Bellefonte, of Cholera Infantum, Geo. Walter, son of James and Alpharetta McEntire.

A sweet bud nipped from the parent stem
Gathered from earth's sin tainted air
Go burst and bloom in a fairer clime
Under the Father's care.

Precious and pure in His Holy sight
Our little babe was only lent
Death's messenger so cold and white
His love and mercy sent.

A babe on earth 'tis sweetest boon
The Allwise Giver's hand hath given
But sweeter far to know we own
A babe in heaven.

Walter a crown and robe are thine
Although thou hast no worker's plea
The Savior's suffering on the cross
Has won the crown for thee. B.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE SALE OF PATENT MEDICINES

Has in no other country reached the enormous proportions it has assumed in the United States. This is owing to the vast extent of territory and the comparative thinness of population, which creates the necessity for some reliable remedy, that can be applied at once in the absence of professional medical aid.

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS has for over ten years been regarded as

and is relied on in every emergency by thousands of families in every section of the country. It is not a fancy drink, composed of bad whisky, flavored with aromatics, to tickle the palate and minister to a depraved appetite, but is a carefully and scientifically prepared compound extract of Roots, Herbs and Barks, possessing great medicinal virtue. Its rare combination presents the most effectual remedy yet discovered for all diseases of the stomach, Liver Kidneys and Bowels. Sold everywhere at One Dollar per Bottle.

☞BY ONE OF THE LEADING PHYSICIANS of Philadelphia city.—A careful examination of mortuary statistics establishes the fact that one adult person out of every six dies of consumption, and so alarmingly is this disease gaining the ascendancy over all other ills to which flesh is heir, that its approach to one's immediate circle is regarded with perfect horror. If you will carefully examine the records of Materia Medica you will invariably discover that the general want of success in treating diseases has not been a deficiency of pathological knowledge of the functions affected, but of a suitable compound that would act upon the disease and all the sympathetic affections.

This want has at last been met in the Bitter Wine of Iron, prepared by the celebrated Dr. E. F. Kunkle, No 259 North Ninth street, Philadelphia. This excellent compound can be taken by persons with the most delicate stomach without any debilitating effect always giving strength and largely increasing the nervous energy of the patient. In all cases of pulmonary complaints it is admirably adapted to relieve the severity of the symptoms in the advanced stages of the disease, or to arrest it in its incipiency. If you want something that will give you strength, a good appetite, build up your constitution, and in place of moroseness and a lack of energy, give you a brisk and vigorous feeling, try Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It has already received the meed of praise from thousands who have tested its virtues, and for many years maintained its reputation with unfaded popularity.

Price $1 per bottle. E. F. KUNKEL, Sole Proprietor, No. 259 North Ninth street, below Vine, Philadelphia.
